| 1  | On June 26, 2026, Licensing Program Analyst (LPA), Venus Mixson arrived unannounced at the facility                                                                                                                     |
| 2  | and met with the Receptionist, Alyssa Valerio. LPA explained that the visit was conducted to deliver                                                                                                                    |
| 3  | findings for the listed allegation. During the investigation, LPA conducted interviews, record reviews, and                                                                                                             |
| 4  | made observations.                                                                                                                                                                                                      |
| 5  | On June 17, 2026, Community Care Licensing received a complaint alleging staff are not providing                                                                                                                        |
| 6  | assistance making medical appointments. It was reported that Resident 1 (R1) needed to see a specialist                                                                                                                 |
| 7  | due to a reoccurring issue and that the facility had not assisted R1 with scheduling necessary medical                                                                                                                  |
| 8  | appointments. Information obtained from interviews with Administrator and facility staff advised that R1                                                                                                                |
| 9  | does not reside at the listed facility. . Information obtained from Additional Witness confirmed that R1                                                                                                                |
| 10 | does not resident at the facility. A review of facility records and Resident Rosters corroborated the                                                                                                                   |
| 11 | information obtained from interviews.                                                                                                                                                                                   |
| 12 | Based on interviews, record reviews, and observation, it has been determined the allegation has been                                                                                                                    |
| 13 | made against the incorrect facility. Therefore, this investigation has been deemed unfounded, meaning the allegation is false, did not happen, and could not have occurred. The department has dismissed the complaint. |
